

SPECIAL

Sale of Umbrellas

Rain or Shine Now is the Time you need them

24 Umbrellas, paragon frame, steel rod, 26 inch, black at 50c

18 umbrellas, good quality, 28 inch, steel rod and fancy handles at $1

12 umbrellas, 30 and 32 inch, extra heavy and large enough for the whole family at $1. and $1.25

All colors in 26 inch parasol at $1.50

All colors in 26 inch parasol at $2.00

Fine silk parasol, fancy borders at $3.50

Extra fine fancy silk parasols, the prettiest and best thing ever in town at $5.00

Come and get the best values ever offered in Umbrellas and Parasols.

Yours Respectfully

Williamson, Yates & Co.

Patrick Feeney and wife, of Ely spent Sunday in the city with their daughter, Mrs. Alex. Drescher.

Geo. P. Johnston, of Louisiana, spent Sunday in the city with the home folks.

Wall Papers, Crepe, Pop Tincts, Varnished Tiles, in fact everything one could want in Papers.—W. B. SPALDING.

Bob Able had a horse tied to a telephone pole near the Burlington depot, and the other end of the animal was hitched to a cart, a team hitched to a wagon dashed by and Bob's horse "kicked up in front and reared up behind" and smashed the cart.

Shave at Streen's.

Mrs. Nannie Thiehoff, of Excelsior and Mrs. Yancey Thiehoff, of Hannibal, spent Friday in the city with relatives.

FOR SALE—6 room two story house, 3 1/2 lots, out buildings, all kinds of fruit, living water, house in corner of block. A bargain.—NODE GREEN.

Joe J. Rogers celebrated Easter Sunday by having his fifty-fourth birthday fall on that day for the first time in his life.

Wool! Wool!

I will pay the Highest Market Price for your wool clip.—J. B. Anderson

D. R. Campbell and wife spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. T. W. Jones, at Oak Dale.

J. H. McClintic was a business visitor in the Gem City, Saturday.

George Moessner, of Hunnewell, was a business visitor in the city Friday. George likes to see his old friends and they him.

Miss Elsie Renshaw, of Warren, was the guest of relatives in the city the latter part of last week.

I Want

Your wool clip for 1905 and will pay the Highest Market Price for it.—J. B. Anderson

Dr. Eugene Sigler, the Occulist, will be in this city professionally, next week.

Harry A. McClintic was a business visitor in Palmyra, Saturday.

S. W. P., stands for Sherwin Williams Paint and for, when sold to you it is well worth the price. See Wood Bros.

Mrs. Jno. B. Settle was called to Shebina, Saturday by the death of a friend.

Mrs. M. T. Swearingen and babe, spent Easter Sunday with relatives in Hannibal.

Ed O'Daniel came over from Quincy, Friday to visit the homefolks.

Mrs. John Green, of Palmyra spent part of the week with friends in this city.

Mrs. W. M. Barnes writes us to change her address from Excelsior, Ark., to Skiatook, I. T.

John Williams and wife, of Indian Creek, have been the guests of Mrs. Williams mother, Mrs. J. E. Carrico.

Mesdames Ritchey and Frazer of Withers Mill, arrived Tuesday to visit their friends Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Brown.

You Want

My money and I want your wool at the Highest Market Price.—J. B. Anderson.

Reed Noland, of Quincy, spent Sunday in the city with his mother, Mrs. Mary Noland.

The Kansas City World says: We didn't know that the editor of the Monroe County Appeal was such a joker. In a full page write up he describes "Progressive Paris."

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Yates, of near Paris, spent the first of the week in this city with friends.

FOR SALE—5 room house on corner lot, good location. A snap if taken soon.—NODE GREEN.

George Hollander, of Clarence spent the latter part of last week in the city with his friend, Ivan Yates.

Misses Mable Broughton and Josephine Davis, of Shelby county, and Jack Blackford, of Shebina, and Ed Gregory, of Emden, spent Sunday in the city with J. T. Elliott and family.

L. E. Morgan, of Beacon, Iowa, arrived Monday and joined his family who were on the farm near Shiel, that he purchased some time ago. Mr. Morgan is now a full fledged citizen of the Little Kingdom of Rails.

If You

Want strong heavy flower plants, plants that are blooming or that will bloom soon, go to the Jerry Edwards green house in the southeast part of the city, for them.

J. T. Spalding has been drilling a well for William Jones, southeast of Monroe, and had a hard streak of luck last Thursday afternoon. During the rain storm a heavy gust of wind struck the derrick and toppled it over, breaking a large casting that had to be re-placed from Chicago.

QUICK MEAL GASOLINE STOVES

Profit by others experience and buy a Quick Meal Gasoline Stove, they are no experiment to be tried; they are easily operated and are safe. Prices range from $3.00 to $25.00.

A. JAEGER, The Leader

Rogers & Thompson want to buy your wool.

Summer School.

Teachers desiring a thorough review in the branches required on a third, second or first grade certificate, or pupils wishing to make grades in these subjects cannot do better than attend the Summer School to be held in Madison, beginning May 8th, and closing in time for the June examination, which will be held at the same place.

Grades made in this Summer School are not accepted on certificates, but if you do the work as given to you, you will be the better able to pass on the examination required.

Come and work with us a few weeks and we assure you that you will find the time profitably spent. J. B. ROGERS. C. B. HUGLEY.

Mrs. G. E. Tompkins left yesterday for a months visit to her parents at Brookfield.

Miss Emma Gentges, of the Gem City, has been visiting her brother, Barney Gentges.

See Rogers & Thompson before you sell your wool.

Horace J. Kent went to Versailles, Ill., Monday to temporarily assume the duties of miller, in the mill owned by J. H. Willis.

Do you want to improve your property? If so Use The Sun Proof Paint.

[W. B. SPALDING.

Mrs. Grace Stoddard Keith, of Keithville, La., is expected to arrive in a few days for a visit with friends who will be glad to see her.

C. A. Cearfoss and family, of Warren, were shoppers in the city Monday.

Rogers & Thompson pay the very highest prices for wool.

Miss Daphne Crawford returned from Memphis, Mo., Monday, where she has been teaching school. She will open the fall term of school at Rock Lick.

Robey & Robinson have received 999,000 shingles in their yard in this city since Jan. 1, 1905, they had on hand at that time 265,000.

J. H. Spalding of far away Carstairs, Alberta, Canada, writes us to send him the DEMOCRAT. The Peoples Paper carries the news to Monroe people where 'ere they may be.

Do you want to sell your property? If so Sun Proof Paint will enhance its value. W. B. SPALDING.

Mrs. Bessie Mudd, of Hannibal came up Monday to visit her parents, Edward Hardesty and wife.

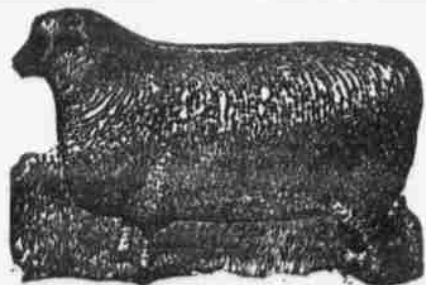

A good program by the best local talent and address by the organizer, D. I. Thornton, will be given at Old Fellows Hall, April 28th, at 8 p. m., preceding the organization of the Fraternal Union of America. Free membership till charter is closed. Everybody cordially invited to be present.

The noted "Inside Inn" or at least a portion of it is now in the city, for Charles Lawson has bought and had shipped to him a car load of material that came out of that far famed building.

Dr. John Bell has moved from his farm near Hatch, to the one owned by him, known as the Jake Peirsol place, east of the city. He had practically made a new residence of the old one before moving.

Editor Tipton and wife, of the Stoutsville Banner, was with Monroe friends, Monday. He paid the DEMOCRAT a fraternal call.

WOOL!

We pay highest price for Wool. See us before you sell.

A. BonIware & Son

Both Phones Number 132